

Durham Police Department Shooting Data

Year-to-Date through August 5, 2023

The below chart compares data on shooting incidents year-to-date over a three-year period. A shooting incident is defined as an event reported to police involving the criminal discharge of a firearm, and does not include accidental or self-inflicted shootings.

The charts below provide demographic data for persons shot (fatal and nonfatal) in the current year.

